

Chaaya Citadel

Kandy • Sri Lanka

Chaaya Citadel sits at the edge of the broad Mahaweli River on the outskirts of the hill-country capital of Kandy. This reliable 3/4-star hotel offers good value for the mid-range traveller, and tranquil surroundings away from the busy city of Kandy. Days begin to the sound of birdsong and perhaps a warm mist rolling away from the river. The riverside setting also adds lustre to the twilight hours.

Most rooms face the river and provides scenic views from your private balcony. The interiors are furnished with colours and fabrics in traditional Kandyan style. There are 24 deluxe rooms and suites and 97 superior rooms. Superior rooms have a/c, satellite TV, minibar, in-room safes, and IDD phones. Deluxe rooms also have DVD player and more luxurious interiors with traditional hand-woven hangings. The spacious main restaurant with views of the Mahaweli, offers international buffet-style breakfast, lunch and dinner. Chaaya Citadel is also quite rare among Kandy hotels in having an a la carte restaurant.
